Fort Collins (PRWEB) August 9, 2007 -- Community leader Doug Johnson, a Vice President at First Western Trust Bank in Fort Collins, was selected recently to serve on the Colorado State University Alumni Association Board of Directors.

Mr. Johnson, who graduated from CSU in 1993 with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts, joined the 24-member board in July and will serve a 3-year term. The Alumni Association Board of Directors represents the voice of more than 140,000 CSU alumni and supports the University through the execution of the Alumni Association's strategic plan.

"As a Ram alum who bleeds gold and green, I am very honored to serve on the university's alumni board," said Johnson. "CSU is a phenomenal institution with a proud past and exciting future and I look forward to contributing to the university's continuing growth and success."

At First Western, Mr. Johnson focuses on business and community development throughout the Northern Colorado and Southern Wyoming region. His primary responsibilities include the development and retention of client relationships. Mr. Johnson works closely with his team members to best serve new and existing clients with financial needs and objectives.

In addition to the CSU Alumni Board, Mr. Johnson has served as the president of the Poudre School District Foundation board of directors, and is a member of the Community Foundation of Northern Colorado Fort Collins Local Advisory Board, and the Editorial Board of the Coloradoan newspaper. In addition, he is a regular United Way volunteer.
